

This is an aerial photograph of a residential and commercial area in K.Ú. Rychnov nad Kněžnou. The map displays numerous land parcels, each outlined with a red or blue border. Each parcel is labeled with a unique identification number, often followed by a plot number (č.p.). The parcels are situated along several streets, including Jiráskova, Nadražní, and Sokolovská. The area contains a mix of building types, from small residential houses to larger commercial or industrial structures, as well as parking lots and green spaces. A prominent red boundary line highlights a specific area in the center of the map, possibly indicating a project site or a specific administrative zone.
